ROUNDELAY PERFORMS CONCERT OF EARLY MUSIC ON TUESDAY

Roxana Gundry and Oliver Brookes, performing as the musical duo ROUNDELAY, will present a program of medieval, baroque, and renaissance music entitled "TO DRIVE THE COLD WINTER AWAY", on Tuesday, November 22 at noon in Reed Hall Room 160. The two are from Devon, England and have toured throughout the world. They play an exciting array of early instruments including the cittern, mandolino, shawms, pibcorns, gemshorns, transverse flute, bass rackett, cup bells, and more. Roxana Gundry studied at the Guildhall School of Music and has specialized in voice and lute. She taught at the University of Perth in Western Australia and has given Master classes in the United Kingdom and the United States. She is an author and has recorded for BIS, Grosvenor and Roundelay records. Oliver Brookes has been involved in early music since the inception of the Early Music Consort of London, with whom he traveled extensively. He taught in Australia, and at the Birmingham Conservatory in England, and at the Royal Northern College of Music. He has recorded for many early music labels and is a much sought after performer.

SECRETARIES SPONSORING FUNDRAISERS

The Lima Campus Secretarial Association reminds you to save your Ray's grocery receipts. Turn them in to Merlene Metzger in the OSU Business Office in the PS/ADM Building. And don't forget to get your ticket for the annual CHRISTMAS CASH drawing to be held on December 2. You could win $75, $50, or $25 for your Christmas shopping. Tickets are $1.00 each and are available from Deb Howard in Galvin 107 or Beth Coleson in Galvin 222.

A FRIENDLY REMINDER

LTC student Carol Cass wants to remind everyone that you should not PET, FEED, or TALK to her guide dog Lucky. When the guide dog is distracted she cannot do a good job of guiding Carol. They both will appreciate a friendly "hi" if you see them walking across the campus. Carol also cautions about opening doors in front of her and Lucky. Be sure there is enough clearance so that they will not bump into the opening door. All of our physically challenged students, especially ones in wheelchairs, ask that when you are sitting on hallway floors be sure there is enough room for their wheelchairs to pass by. In our hurried world, a little courtesy goes a long way.

"NUTCRACKER" IS SYMPHONY'S HOLIDAY OFFERING

The Lima Symphony Orchestra and the Indianapolis Ballet Theater will present Tschaikovsky's classic holiday tale, "THE NUTCRACKER", on Saturday, December 10 at 7:30 pm. and on Sunday, December 11 at 3:00 pm. at the Lima Civic Center. Tickets are on sale at $15 and $12 for adults and $9 and $7.50 for children and students. Call 222-5701 to reserve your seats or stop by the Civic Center box office.
